Twelfth Annual

CPOG Spring Clinical Oncology Symposium

A Review Program

2009 San Antonio Breast Cancer Symposium

Friday, April 16, 2010
12:00 noon–5:00 p.m.

University Conference Center
on the campus of
Penn State Milton S. Hershey Medical Center
Hershey, Pennsylvania

PURPOSE
This half-day educational session will review key results presented at the recent national meeting of the San Antonio Breast Cancer Symposium and will focus on clinical application of these data to the management of patients with breast cancer.

AUDIENCE
This educational program targets medical, surgical, and radiation oncologists interested in the treatment of patients with breast cancer. Fellows, nurses, nurse practitioners, physician assistants, pharmacists, researchers, and other health-care professionals also are invited to attend.

OBJECTIVES
Upon completion of the symposium, participants should be able to:
• Describe the efficacy of emerging chemotherapeutic agents
• Explain the role of RANK ligand inhibitors in preserving bone health in breast cancer
• Assess the role of anti-angiogenic and other targeted agents in the neoadjuvant, adjuvant, and metastatic settings
• Review current data on the value and adverse effects of adjuvant hormonal therapy
• Evaluate genomic tools for estimating the prognosis and treatment response in early breast cancer
• Discuss which biomarkers will help in clinical practice

FEE
The fee for this program is $25 per person. The fee includes the cost of instruction, lunch, and break refreshments.

REGISTRATION
Register online, by fax, or by mail. Registrations will be confirmed by e-mail upon receipt of payment, authorization to bill, or a credit card guarantee. If you do not receive a confirmation within two weeks, phone 717-531-6483 to confirm. Late registrations can be accepted only if space is available.

CANCELLATION POLICY
No refunds will be made for cancellations received after April 9, 2010. The University reserves the right to cancel or postpone any course or activity because of insufficient enrollment or other unforeseen circumstances. If a program is canceled or postponed, the University is not responsible for any related costs, charges, or expenses, including cancellation/change charges assessed by airlines or travel agencies. If a program is filled or canceled, preregistered participants will be notified.
