The Penn State Milton S. Hershey Medical Center is accepting applications for full-time faculty positions at the level of Assistant/Associate Professor in the Division of General Internal Medicine within the department of Medicine. The Milton S. Hershey Medical Center is the main teaching facility for the Pennsylvania State University College of Medicine. Two of these positions are at the Assistant Professor level and will be sponsored jointly with the Department of Public Health Sciences, but interviewing will not commence until one or more of the Associate Professor positions is filled. Applicants must be board-certified or board-eligible in internal medicine and have demonstrated their potential for success as an independent, funded investigator. These new faculty members will have 70-80% of their time protected, for up to 3 years, for research, as well as maintain an active clinical work in either inpatient or ambulatory settings. Salary and academic appointment are commensurate with qualifications. Interested individuals should send a letter of interest and curriculum vitae to Christopher N. Sciamanna, MD, Chief, Division of General Internal Medicine – M.C. HU15, PO Box 850, The Milton S. Hershey Medical Center, Hershey, PA 17033. The Pennsylvania State University is an Affirmative Action, Equal Opportunity Employer. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply.
